Oscar Movie Night

For our March Adult Program, we will be showing an Oscar nominated movie on Monday March 12th at 6:30pm. (Movie title to be decided.) Bring a friend along and we'll provide the snacks!

We will also be announcing the winner of our Oscar ballot guessing game that night. As a reminder, whoever was able to guess the most correct winners on our Oscar ballot will receive a free copy of an Oscar nominated movie of their choice!

We will of course be purchasing all of the Oscar nominated movies for the Library, so feel free to ask a Librarian to put a hold on one for you!

March Display Case

May the luck of the Irish be with you! This month our display case has all things St. Patrick's Day, Irish and Celtic on display! The items on display belong to Jim McNeill, Julia Flannery and Zoe Buehl.

The display includes jewelry, books, signs, leprechaun figures, hanging décor, a tapestry, a drum and even more fun green and festive things!

Book Club

Book Club will next meet on Wednesday March 21st at 7:30pm to discuss Sing You Home by Jodi Picoult.

"In the aftermath of a series of personal tragedies, Zoe throws herself into her career as a music therapist. When an unexpected friendship slowly blossoms into love, she makes plans for a new life, but to her shock and inevitable rage, some people—even those she loves and trusts most—don't want that to happen."

Pat Wickersham will be leading the discussion this time. Stop in to pick up your copy today!

Between the Covers Book Club

Carolyn's next selection for her Between the Covers Book Group is The Signature of All Things by Elizabeth Gilbert.

They will meet on Friday March 23rd at 10:00am.

"Exquisitely researched and told at a galloping pace, The Signature of All Things soars across the globe—from London to Peru to Philadelphia to Tahiti to Amsterdam, and beyond. Along the way, the story is peopled with unforgettable characters: missionaries, abolitionists, adventurers, astronomers, sea captains, geniuses, and the quite mad. But most memorable of all, it is the story of Alma Whittaker, who—born in the Age of Enlightenment, but living well into the Industrial Revolution

--bears witness to that extraordinary moment in human history when all the old assumptions about science, religion, commerce, and class were exploding into dangerous new ideas."

We have lots of copies available for checkout!

Kids Movie Days

We will be showing two different kids movies this month!

On Thursday March 8th, you can come watch Coco at 4:00pm.

In Disney/Pixar's vibrant tale of family, fun and adventure, an aspiring young musician named Miguel embarks on an extraordinary journey to the magical land of his ancestors. There, the charming trickster Héctor becomes an unexpected friend who helps Miguel uncover the mysteries behind his family's stories and traditions.

On Thursday March 29th, we will show Ferdinand at 1:30pm.

(It's a No School Day.)
After Ferdinand, a bull with a big heart, is mistaken for a dangerous beast, he is captured and torn from his home. Determined to return to his family, he rallies a misfit team on the ultimate adventure.

As always, we will provide a snack for the kids while they watch the movie.
