Volume 224

October 2017

Wisconsin Killers

Wisconsin may be known for beer, brats, and cheese, but it's also known for SERIAL KILLERS! Join us if you dare for an expose on the granddaddy of them all. Learn about the small town Wisconsin killer who inspired such movies as Psycho, Chainsaw Massacre, and the Silence of the Lambs. Come to the Monticello Public Library on Monday, October 9th at 6:30 p.m. to hear Kim Tschudy present an R rated scary program just in time for Halloween. Sign up today!

2007 Silent Auction

The Friends of the Monticello Public Library will once again be sponsoring our Silent Auction to help raise funds for the Library.

We would appreciate it if baskets and donations were turned in by Saturday, October 21st. Items will then be on display for bidding starting Tuesday, October 24th and then stop in every day to check out new items and to bid high and often.

The library is hoping to replace all its computers with the money raised this year. Be sure to check our Facebook page for pictures, details and prices of the items up for bid.

Final bidding will take place on Saturday November 11th at 12:00 pm.

Book Group

The Monticello Book Discussion Group will be meeting on Wednesday evening, October 18th at 7:30 p.m. to savor another scary event.

They will be reading the first book in Darynda Jones' popular Charley Davidson series. Come read about the Grim Reaper who sees dead people. "With scorching-hot tension and high-octane humor, FIRST GRAVE ON THE RIGHT is your sign-post to paranormal suspense of the highest order." It's got everything: rollicking humor, sexual tension, and a spine-tingling mystery. Get hooked today on Charley Davidson!

Jenn Chladil will be the discussion leader and she should be great since she is a big fan of the Darynda Jones books.

Between the Covers

Carolyn's Book Group, BETWEEN THE COVERS, which meets the fourth Friday morning of every month, will be reading Jodi Picoult's SMALL GREAT THINGS.

If you have never read a book by Jodi Picoult, do so today. She is a great storyteller and one can hardly put her books down. The audio books are terrific and always have a cast to narrate the story.

Pick up a print or audio book today and join Carolyn on Friday, October 27, 2017 at ten a.m. You won't regret it.

"Frank, uncomfortably introspective and right on the day's headlines, SMALL GREAT THINGS will challenge readers...The difficult self-awareness is what sustains this book...forcing engaged readers to meditate on their own beliefs and actions along with these characters...It's also exciting to have a high-profile writer like Picoult take an earnest risk to expand our cultural conversation about race and prejudice."

Kids Movie

Zoe will be showing a new movie for kids on Thursday, October 26, 2017 at 4:00 p.m. in the library.

Come see the Emoji Movie and take an adventure in the secret world inside your smartphone to Textopolis, a bustling city where all your favorite emojis live.

All ages welcome.

Story Time Resumes!

After a brief respite, Zoe is back in full swing with Story Time on Tuesday mornings at ten!

On October 10th, children will learn all about Trees and Leaves. On October 17th, Zoe will present "Where the Wild Things Are!" The 24th, everyone will learn more about Pumpkins and on the 31th, Halloween! Come in costume if you and your child would like to dress up!

Story Time is open to preschoolers and their caregivers so come to the library.

Trick or Treat!

Hey kids! Can you guess how many spooky treats are in the glass pumpkin on the front library table?? Write your first & last names, your guess, and your phone number on a slip of paper. Then fold it up and put it in the spider basket! The treats will be counted on Halloween and given out to those who Treat or Treat at the library.

Sticker Mosaic

For every item you check out of the library, you'll receive a color sticker to apply to our "Sticker by Number" (instead of Paint by Number" that's located in the entryway. No one knows what it's going to be so check out lots of items to fill it up faster. You can also make a guess on the Guessing Sheet if you want to try to figure it out before too many stickers get applied. It should be a fun surprise for everyone! Come join the fun today, if you're brave enough.
