

Meeting Room Policy

The Library has a meeting room with limited capacity that can be reserved for public use. The room is available to individuals or organized groups in the Library service area. Exceptions may be made by the Library Board if the Board deems extenuating circumstances are involved.

The fact that a group is permitted to meet at the Library does not in any way constitute an endorsement of the group's policies or beliefs by the Library staff or Board.

The room may be reserved no more than ninety days in advance.

It is understood that library programming will have first priority in room use.

There will be no charge for use of the meeting room.

No admission may be charged by the group.

The people using the room shall leave it in neat, clean, orderly condition; if not, the group/individual will be given notice that continued offense will result in denied access to the meeting room.

The Library is not responsible for any equipment, supplies, materials, clothing, or other items brought to the Library by any group or individual attending a meeting.

No alcoholic beverages are allowed.

The Library Board and staff do not assume any liability for groups or individuals attending a meeting in the Library.
