DIRECTOR'S 3 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

Director Katrina will be celebrating three years at Monticello on August 14th. She has enjoyed growing close to the community through her work at the library and on various community projects. Her hopes for the future include a strategic plan in the fall, partnering with local groups, and bringing meaningful programs to the community. She would love to thank everyone for their commitment and support of the library.

Here's to the future!

QUOTE OF THE MONTH

"No utopia can ever give satisfaction to everyone, all the time. As their material conditions improve, men raise their sights and become discontented with power and possessions that once would have seemed beyond their wildest dreams. And even when the external world has granted all it can, there still remain the searchings of the mind and the longings of the heart."

- Childhood's End by Arthur C. Clarke
