Library Stacks Under Construction

As we are sure you've noticed, we have been working hard on rearranging some areas of the Library. The locations of the Adult Fiction and Nonfiction are being switched with each other.

Therefore, the Adult Fiction books will now be located on the bookshelves going through the middle of the Library. The Adult Nonfiction books will now be located on the shelves that run along the wall.

During this relocation project, we have also been going through the Adult Nonfiction book by book checking for the age of the book/how current the info is, when the book was last checked out and the number of books we have on the topic. This is how we've been deciding what books to "weed" or remove from our collection. We need to weed our Nonfiction areas in order to make more room for the Fiction area.

When we decide to weed a book, sometimes we also check to see if a certain patron checked it out frequently and if there was someone, we have been saving that book for them. So, if there's a certain nonfiction topic that you're really interested in, let us know and maybe we will be able to send some books your way! Otherwise, please stop in to check out all of the wonderful books we have weeded that you can take home for FREE! This is a work in progress and not a quick and easy task, so we thank you for your patience! Please don't hesitate to ask us a question if you can't find what you're looking for.

The Library will be closing early at 6:00pm on Tuesday July 17th for our monthly staff meeting.

Book Club

Book Club's pick for July is A Gate at the Stairs by Lorrie Moore. Here's a snippet about the book "Twenty-year-old Tassie Keltjin, the daughter of a gentleman farmer, has come to a university town as a student. When she takes a job as a part-time nanny for a mysterious and glamorous family, she finds herself drawn deeper into their world and forever changed. Told through the eyes of this memorable narrator, A Gate at the Stairs is a piercing novel of race, class, love, and war in America." Book club will meet on Wednesday July 18th at 7:30pm to discuss it.

Between the Covers Book Club

Carolyn's July pick for her Between the Covers book club is The Rosie Project by Graeme Simsion. Don Tillman, a professor of genetics, sets up a project designed to find him the perfect wife, starting with a questionnaire that has to be adjusted a little as he goes along. Then he meets Rosie, who is everything he's not looking for in a wife, but she ends up his friend as he helps her try and find her biological father. They will meet on Friday July 27th at 10:00am. Come check out a book today so you can join them for the discussion!

Kids Movie Day

Send your kiddos to the Library the afternoon of Thursday July 26th. We will be showing the movie Sherlock Gnomes at 1:30pm. In this movie, Garden gnomes, Gnomeo and Juliet, recruit renowned detective Sherlock Gnomes to investigate the mysterious disappearance of other garden ornaments.

The movie is rated PG and is 1 hour and 26 minutes long. A snack will be provided!
