Marcia Teale's Hatpins and Perfume Bottles

Marcia Teale has been kind enough to lend us her collection of hatpins and perfume bottles for our May display case! Marcia has been collecting hatpins for about 5 years. She had just decided that she wanted to collect them and a friend gave her one to start the collection.

Some of the hatpins are antiques and some are new made from brooches. There are different designs to the décor on the hatpins ranging from Egyptian themed to flowers to sparkly gems. Each one is a unique work of art. The hatpins are displayed in beautiful antique hatpin holders as well as one green glass sugar shaker, which was the first thing she used to display them. Marcia was given a perfume bottle by someone and liked it so much that she started collecting those too. The one that really stands out to me is a clear glass bottle that she got on a trip to China featuring a pagoda design. The rest vary in size, shape, color and design but are all equally prettily crafted. Come take a peek at all of these beauties for yourself!

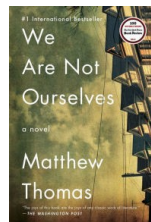

Book Club

Book Club will next meet on Wednesday May 16th at 7:30pm to discuss We Are Not Ourselves by Matthew Thomas. "Born in 1941, Eileen Tumulty is raised by her Irish immigrant parents in Woodside, Queens, in an apartment where the mood swings between heartbreak and hilarity, depending on how much alcohol has been consumed.

From an early age, Eileen wished that she lived somewhere else. She sets her sights on upper class Bronxville, New York, and an American Dream is born.

Driven by this longing, Eileen places her stock and love in Ed Leary, a handsome young scientist, and with him begins a family. Over the years Eileen encourages her husband to want more: a better job, better friends, a better house. It slowly becomes clear that his growing reluctance is part of a deeper, more incomprehensible psychological shift."

Between the Covers Book Club

Carolyn's next pick for her Between the Covers Book Club is The Bean Trees by Barbara Kingsolver. "Young, bright Taylor Greer leaves her poverty-stricken life in Kentucky and heads west, picking up an abandoned Native American baby girl whom she names Turtle and finds a new home in Tucson with Mattie, an old woman who takes in Central American refugees." The group will meet on Friday May 25th at 10:00 to discuss.
